Defendant.)

STIPULATION OF DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE

Come now the parties and announce to the Court that all matters herein controversy between them have been compromised and settled out of Court, and that Plaintiffs, for valuable consideration, have executed a settlement agreement and release in full and final settlement of all claims against the United States arising out of the matters in controversy, including any and all subrogation interests or liens. As a result, the parties stipulate that Plaintiffs' cause of action should be dismissed with full prejudice to Plaintiffs against the re-filing of the same, that the United States be relieved from any and all further responsibility in this matter, and that Plaintiffs and the United States shall each bear their own discretionary costs and attorney's fees.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCIS M. HAMILTON III
United States Attorney
